

BIOLOGICAL SYSTEMS ENGINEERING DEPARTMENTAL RETREAT
Celebrating the Legacy of more than 100 years of Agricultural Engineering at Washington State University

DAY 2 – SATURDAY, AUGUST 6, 2022

ACTIVITIES WITH CURRENT STUDENTS AND ALUMNI

ELSON FLOYD CULTURAL CENTER 405 SE Spokane St., Pullman, WA

Zoom link: <https://wsu.zoom.us/j/93021266458?pwd=aW1FQU5nSGZOZ0hJcXF2Qk13QXpnZz09>,

Meeting ID: 930 2126 6458, Passcode: 620137

- | | |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00 – 10:00 AM | Breakfast on your own and travel to the Elson Floyd Cultural Center |
| 10:00 AM | Elson Floyd Cultural Center |
| 10:00 – 11:00 AM | Poster Session |
| 11:00 AM – Noon | Release of Book: Agricultural and Biological Systems Engineering at Washington State University: More than 100 years Committed to Building a Better and More Sustainable Agriculture. Authors: Dr. L. G. James, Dr. D. C. Davis, Dr. R. P. Cavalieri, Dr. C. O. Stockle, Dr. J. Tang, Dr. M. Garcia-Perez at Elson Floyd Cultural Center. Conversation with former department chairs |
| Noon – 1:00 PM | Celebrating the life and career of Dr. Norman Scott |
| 1:00 - 2:00 PM | Lunch with video on the history of the department |
| 2:00 PM | Closing remarks |
| 2:30 PM | Unveiling picture of Prof. Scott in L.J. Smith 259 (Dr. Scott and former BSE chairs) |