

Fire Safety

1. Where is the TFREC meeting place in case of emergency, such as fire?

2. Activities that can cause a fire to start include (circle all that apply):
 - a. Storing fuel-soaked rags in a pile
 - b. Striking a small wooden stick coated on one end with phosphorus sesquisulfide against a rough surface
 - c. Rubbing a balloon vigorously on your head
 - d. Sticking your finger in a light socket
 - e. No knowing the flammability, reactivity and flash point of the chemical you are using
3. Fire prevention activities include (circle all that apply):
 - a. Not overloading circuits
 - b. Blocking fire exits
 - c. Keeping flammable liquids away from ignition sources
 - d. Smoking while filling a gasoline container
 - e. Limiting the amount of flammable materials used at one time
4. All fire extinguishers in your lab can be used to fight any fire?
 - a. True
 - b. False
 - c. I won't know until I read the fire extinguisher labels
5. Put the Fire Classification (A, B, C or D) next to the type of material
 - Gas, liquid and grease
 - Electrical
 - Paper, cloth and wood
 - Metal
6. Hazards from fire include (circle all that apply):
 - a. Bad hair day
 - b. Burns
 - c. Release of toxic vapors
 - d. Your pants might catch on fire like the guy in the cartoon
 - e. Cute firefighters in your workplace
7. What is the FIRST thing you should do if you spot a fire?
 - a. Panic
 - b. Call 911
 - c. Call the fire department
 - d. Sound the alarm
 - e. Turn off machinery

8. When should you attempt to fight a fire?
- a. Before you shut off the gas which is the source of the fire
 - b. After everyone has been evacuated from the building
 - c. When you feel invincible
 - d. When the fire department has been notified and only if you have been trained
 - e. When the flames are taller than 4 feet
9. What does PASS stand for?
- a. Pull, Aim, Squat, Squirt
 - b. Panic, Arm yourself, Smash or Shotgun (this one may be for zombies)
 - c. Pull, Aim, Squeeze, Sweep
 - d. Something about Homer Simpson and nacho cheese (mmm... nachos)
10. If you are a lying liar and your pants actually catch on fire, what should you do?
- a. Start a disco inferno (burn, baby, burn)
 - b. Enjoy the hunger games, and may the odds be ever in your favor
 - c. Stop, drop and roll
 - d. Snap, crackle and pop
 - e. You are a hunk, a hunk of burning love... enjoy yourself Elvis