

Agricultural Leadership Certificate

16 Total Credits

- 13 Graded
- 3 Internship or Project

Pullman and Global Campuses

The School of Economic Sciences offers a Certificate in Agricultural Leadership. Students must maintain an overall GPA of 2.6 in all courses that count toward the certificate. The certificate requires 16 credits and includes:

Core Courses—7 credits total

- ECONS 101 – Fundamentals of Microeconomics
- HD 205 – Developing Effective Communication and Life Skills

Elective Courses—Choose two, 3 credits each

- AFS 336 – Agriculture, Environment, and Community
- ANIM_SCI 205 – Companion Animal Nutrition
- ANIM_SCI 285 – Rights and Welfare of Animals
- COMSTRAT 312 – Principles of Public Relations
- CROP_SCI 360 – World Agricultural Systems
- ECONS 350 – Introduction to Farm and Ranch Management
- ECONS 351 – Introduction to Food and Agricultural Markets
- ECONS 426 – Transportation Econ. and Supply Chain Analysis
- ECONS 450 – Advanced Farm and Ranch Management
- ECONS 451 – Advanced Food Economics and Marketing
- HD 315 – Leadership Theories and Practice
- POL_SCI 442 – Leadership Skills for the Public Sector

Internship—3 credits

- ECONS 497 – Internship

LEARN MORE

