GROUP AGREEMENTS FOR SSB 5351 Collaborative Discussions

Be Respectful

- One person speaks at a time; listen when others are speaking, avoid interrupting and side conversations.
- Keep comments brief so everyone gets a chance to share their thoughts. Avoid dominating the discussion.
- Hear and respect all opinions. Practice active listening – listening to understand, rather than to respond.
- Say “ouch” if someone says something that hurts. Say “oops” and genuinely apologize for the ways your intention did not match your impact.
- Silence cell phones and refrain from using laptops during the meeting, except to take notes.
- Make every effort to attend in person (virtual attendees are not guaranteed equal participation).

Be Constructive

- Acknowledge that all participants bring with them legitimate purposes, goals, concerns and interests, whether or not you are in agreement with them.
- Openly explore issues.
- Act in “good faith,” seeking to resolve conflicts and identify solutions. Come with the sense that this is a gathering of bright minds working toward a common goal.
- State concerns and interests clearly, listen carefully to and assume the best in others. Leave negative assumptions and attitudes at the door.
- Ask pertinent questions and educate oneself and those you represent about the interests and needs that must be addressed in a problem-solving atmosphere.
- Share comments that are solution focused, rather than repeating past discussions.
- It is OK to disagree; it is not OK to make personal attacks or slanderous statements.
- Minimize the use of jargon and acronyms, define and explain when used.
- Commit to fully exploring the issues and searching for creative solutions that best serve the parties’ mutual interests in addition to those of the constituents that each caucus represents.
- Work towards consensus.
- Be willing to compromise.
- Ask for clarification when uncertain of what another person is saying.
- Ask questions rather than make assumptions.

Be Productive

- Begin and end meetings on time.
- Respect time constraints.
- Adhere to the agenda as much as possible, focusing on the subject at hand.
- Indicate to the facilitator/s when they wish to make a comment and be acknowledged before speaking.
- Volunteer for the tasks at hand, as appropriate.
- Proactively communicate to leadership, decision makers, and other key personnel the progress of the Collaborative, including emerging decisions and agreements of the Collaborative and the context or rationale for them.
- Proactively communicate to constituents the progress of the Collaborative, including emerging decisions and agreements of the Collaborative and the context or rationale for them.
