Super Saturday Workshop Descriptions

Time Class Description

All Day	First Aid and Fire Safety: Do you know when to call 911 and what information the dispatcher will need? Jason Fife of the Moses Lake Fire Department will cover this and how to control bleeding, splinting of injured bones and joints, hot and cold emergencies, and how to identify hypothermia. He will also cover fire safety in the home and for those on their own for the first time in either college or an apartment. This includes information on smoke detectors and making sure there are two ways out of a house. Also — how to extinguish cooking fires. ALL DAY event. Horse Judging Clinic and Competition: The Grant County 4-H Horse Committee is holding a Horse Judging Clinic with a little competition. Youth, ages 8 to 19, learn to place four individual horses by comparing them to the accepted standard. Older youth are expected to be able to give their reasons for the placings. The process teaches the importance of standards, how to make choices, and how to justify those choices. ALL DAY event. Electrical Safety: Grant County PUD will have an on-site safety demonstration using a utility pole, electrical lines, and more! Something everyone should be aware of. ALL DAY event.
10:00	Hour of Coding: Join the 4-H Tech Changemaker Youth Leaders in a one-hour introduction to computer science, designed to broaden participation in the field of computer science and to demystify "code" and show that anyone can learn the basics. Kitchen Knife Skills: Cyndi Rosenow, WSU SnapEd Coordinator, will teach how to safely use knives in the kitchen to avoid injury. Grant County Sheriff's K9 Demonstration: K9 Endo and his handler, Deputy Tyson Voss will give you a first-hand look at the amazing work the deputy K9s do for our safety.
11:00	Introduction to Theater/Acting: Join us for some fun improvisation exercises and learn some techniques and basics to help you get started in stage acting! All ages are welcome. 4-H Record Keeping – it's easier that you think! Shelley Wade, 4-H Leader of the 89er's club and her daughters, Tressa & Elisha, have been keeping exceptional 4-H record books for years! Come and find out how they do it. 4-H Food Activities for Fair: What can you do with foods in 4-H? There are many food activities and projects that members can do for fair and at fair! Janelle Todaro, 4-H Foods Superintendent and leader of Backyard Farmers 4-H Club will answer your questions and show you how to prepare for food activities at fair. Dog Obedience: Does your dog know how to 'stay', 'sit', 'lay down', or "come" when called? Learn dog training basics with some of our blue-ribbon 4-H dog handlers! Unmanned Aerial Systems (Drones): Learn the importance of UAS, how they work and how they fly!
12:00	Lunch – Pizza $5
1:00	"The Power of Sound": Check out what music and sound can do. Michael Dzbenski is the music instructor at Big Bend Community College. Youth for the Quality Care of Animals: Sarah Smith, WSU Extension Educator, will be introducing the YQCA program, which is an online class. This online class takes the place of PQA which has been phased out. YQCA is mandatory for those in the 4-H swine project. This is only an introductory training as to how, when, why YQCA is important in the raising and care of livestock. Beginner's Course to Demonstrations: Are you nervous to speak in front of people? How do you present a 4-H demonstration? Laura Smith from Pure Country 4-H Club will help make public speaking as easy as 1,2,3. Craft Fun: We will have a craft room with hands-on crafting available for all ages. Stop by and make some take-home crafts items!
2:00	Introduction to Theater/Acting: Join us for some fun improvisation exercises and learn some techniques and basics to help you get started in stage acting! All ages are welcome. Club & Group Finance Guidelines: This class is a must to become a chartered club with a 501 (c) 3 status. If you are a new club general leader, have moved from a project leader to a general leader, or handle your club or council's finances, this class is mandatory. Final Drive Swine Showmanship Clinic: Back by popular demand! Blaine Lee, former 4-H and FFA Champion Swine Showman will give an interactive presentation to prepare newer and seasoned 4-H members for that Final Drive! Bring your canes or switches to participate.
All Day	Presentation Tables will be set up all day for: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) 4-H Tech Changemakers 2) How to correctly mount your photos for fair – the dos and don'ts! 3) Blue Ribbon Posters – what does it take to make a blue ribbon poster (examples and handouts)
