"If your horse leaves a pile, pick it up with a smile!!!"

Excerpts from the Grant County Fairground Ground Rules:

35. Equestrian Events: E Coli and other dangerous bacteria and viruses can be passed to humans who touch or come in to contact with horses,. Specifically, children, elderly, or visitors who suffer immune deficiency ailments are considered at high risk for contracting dangerous bacteria and viruses. No food or beverages are allowed in the horse barns. In addition, the following rules apply to equestrian events:

- a. All animals must be under the control of the owner or rider at all times.
- b. No horses or livestock are to be ridden or tied to vehicles on the grass areas. Do not ride your horse in the barns.
- c. No horses or livestock are allowed in RV and camping areas. If a horse is identified in the camping areas the owner will be immediately expelled from the grounds and forfeit and camping fees paid. As per Show management this will also apply to entry fees.
- d. All dogs must be kept on a leash and in owner's control at all times. Stray, barking, or otherwise unmanageable animals will be referred to the Grant County Animal Control Officers.
- e. Show participants must not block the road at the rear of the barns by parking their trailers behind the barns. Day parking is available in the maintenance shop parking area for day use only. If you are staying overnight you must use one of the designated R spots or park at the north end of the Grand County Fairgrounds. Fire and delivery lanes behind the barns must be kept open.
- f. Events participants are responsible for providing their own barn security. Barn occupants must keep the barns clean and free of litter, droppings, shaving etc. and must also keep the areas behind the barns clean and free piles of shavings.
- g. For personal farrier, veterinary use, and /or other equine services: privileges are offered to those who are actively boarding and / or under facilities contract to Grand County Fairgrounds only, unless prior authorization is given.

Barns, Stalls, Pens, and Paddock Use: Grant County Fairgrounds' sole responsibility shall be to provide and un-bedded stall at the beginning of each occupation period with access to bedding. Individual stall users are responsible for providing their own equipment. If any duct tape, zip ties, or other adhesive is left on a stall the stall user will be charged $100 fee for removal by the Grant County Fairgrounds.

Shavings: The only shavings allowed within the Grant County Fairgrounds are shavings provided by the Grant County Fairgrounds, see the show office to receive shavings.

LOSS AND INJURY: The Washington State Jr Horse Show Board, Grant County Fairgrounds, WSH, its members, members of the Show Committee, and their Associates will not be responsible for any loss or damage or injury to horses exhibited, or for any article of any kind that may be lost or destroyed, or any way injured. Each exhibitor will be responsible for any injury that may be occasioned to person, whomsoever, by any horses owned or exhibited by him and shall indemnify the Washington State Jr Horse Show Board, its members, members of the Show Committee and their Associates against all claims and demands of any kind or nature that may grow out of injury occasioned by any horses owned or exhibited by him, or arise from the negligence of person in charge of any such horse. The owner, rider and any of their agents or representatives acknowledge that they participate voluntarily in the competition fully aware that horse sport and the competition involve inherent dangerous risk, and by participating they expressly assume any and all risks of injury or loss, and they agree to not hold the competition and its officials directors, employees and agents harmless for indirectly, from the negligent acts or omissions of said officials, directors, employees or agents. All horses exhibited will be entirely at the owner's risk. Submitting entry shall constitute acceptance by the owner and exhibitor of all provisions as set forth within. The Washington State Jr Horse Show Board its members, members of the Show Committee and their Associates cannot be held liable for loss or injury to the person or property of any visitor, guest or spectators.

RELEASE, WAIVER, HOLD HARMLESS, DEFEND AND INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT THIS DOCUMENT AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

The undersigned, as a Participant/Spectator/Visitor/Horse Owner/Contractor/Volunteer (collectively "Participant"), on his/her own behalf and, if applicable, as the Parent/Legal Guardian of a minor Participant, for good and valuable consideration, agrees to the terms and conditions of this Release, Waiver, Hold Harmless, Defend, and Indemnification Agreement ("Release"). Assumption of Risk and Waiver: Participant understands and accepts the risks of engaging in Equine Activities, while mounted or unmounted, as well as merely being near a horse, pony, mule, donkey, or hinny (collectively "equine"), include, but are in no way limited to, faulty equipment or tack that cause injury or death, Released Parties' failure to make a reasonable effort to determine the ability of Participant to engage safely in an equine activity or to safely manage the particular equine provided based on Participant's representations of his or her ability, leased Parties' failure to conspicuously post warning signs of a dangerous inconspicuous condition on the real property, as well as: (1) the propensity of an equine to behave in a way that may result in injury or death to a person on or near it (ex.: jump, run, kick, buck, bolt, spin, rear up, strike, bite, stumble, fall, etc.); (2) the unpredictability of an equine's reaction to a sound (ex.: doors opening and closing, snow and ice falling, rain, wind, thunder, voices, music, guns, planes, cars, trucks, etc.), movement, or unfamiliar object (ex.: machinery, equipment, obstacles, buggies, carts, barrels, ground poles, coes, flowers, flags, golf carts, mini-bikes, whips, bats, construction material, etc.), person or animal (ex.: leashed or unleashed dogs, ducks, wildlife, equines, etc.); (3) a collision with an object or another animal (ex.: mounted equine, loose equine, etc.); (4) the potential for a person participating in an equine activity to act in a negligent manner, to fail to control the equine or to not act within his or her ability; and (5) natural hazards, including surface and subsurface conditions (ex.: ground holes, uneven terrain, slippery or deep footing, etc.). Participant agrees that engaging in Equine Activities under this Release includes, but is in no way limited to, those defined in the Washington Equine Activity Liability Statute, WA ST 4.24.530 et seq., as well as riding another's equine, petting, guiding, leading, mounting, feeding, watching, and otherwise interacting with or merely being in the vicinity of equines (collectively "Equine Activities"). Participant understands the injuries, death, loss, and damage that may result from the inherent risks of engaging in Equine Activities or just being near equines, that equines are powerful and have the potential to be dangerous, even without warning, and that the risks listed in this Release is just a sampling and Participant is not relying on Released Parties (defined below) to list all possible equine-related risks. Participant understands that Washington State Horseman Horse Show Division ("WSH HSD") requires the wearing of an ASTM/SEI-certified equestrian helmet ("Helmet") consistent with the Washington State Horsemen rules. Participant understands and agrees that failing to wear a Helmet while engaged in Equine Activities increases the risk of serious injury and/ or death, Participant is not relying on Released Parties to provide a Helmet, check a Helmet or its harness strap for proper fitting, or monitor the wearing of a Helmet at any time now or in the future. Participant understands and agrees that Participant has other riding associations and facilities to choose from, he/she has inspected the facility for the Equine Activities and is satisfied that all are reasonable and safe for Participant's intended use, he/she is voluntarily engaging in Equine Activities, he/she is directly and intentionally engaging in and assuming the risks of Equine Activities, and he/she agrees to at all times to be responsible for his/her personal safety. Participant agrees to purchase and maintain his/her health and liability insurance, remain responsible for his/her medical expenses, and waives his/her right to any claims arising from his/her participation in or observation of any Equine Activities, being near equines, or merely being present on real property owned, leased, rented, borrowed, visited, or otherwise occupied or utilized by Released Parties. "Released Parties" herein includes the Washington State Horseman Horse Show Division, its members, officers, directors, employees, contractors, and their respective family members, heirs, agents, trustees, beneficiaries, employees, working students, volunteers, independent contractors, clinicians, guests, visitors, invitees, partners, members, managers, officers, directors, owners, lessors, lessees, licensors, licensees, and others acting on their behalf. Release, Hold Harmless, Defend, Indemnify: Participant agrees to release, hold harmless, defend, and indemnify Released Parties for any illness, injury, death, damage, or other loss (collectively "Loss") incurred by Participant or to Participant's property and/or equine, even if such Loss is caused in whole or in part by negligence or other fault of Participant or Released Parties (except gross negligence, or reckless or willful and wanton conduct). This Release shall not expire and shall remain in full force and effect in perpetuity. Governing Law, Jurisdiction, Time/Liability Limitation, Attorneys' Fees, Jury Waiver: This Release shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington. All disputes relating to the interpretation and enforcement of this Release shall be resolved by the state court in Pierce County, Washington. Participant agrees that any and all claims for Loss by Participant against Released Parties must be brought within one (1) year of the date accrued and any surviving claim for personal property Loss is limited to two hundred and fifty dollars ($250). Participant agrees to reimburse Released Parties for any and all attorneys' fees and costs incurred by Released Parties in enforcing the terms of this Release and/or in defending or prosecuting any claims or causes of action involving or relating to Participant. Participant agrees to waive trial by jury in any action with Released Parties. Severability, Modification: If any provision of this Release is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent of the law. The Release can only be modified if signed by Participant and WSH HSD Director. Certification: Participant certifies he/she read this Release and understands that signing this Release is required for Participant to participate in Equine Activities with Released Parties, knows that he/she has other instructors, facilities and/or horses to choose from, and voluntarily intends on his/her own behalf, and on behalf of minor Participant, and Participant's spouse, parents, family members, heirs, agents, trustees, beneficiaries, representatives, successors, and assigns, to be bound by the terms and conditions contained herein.
