

On March 23, 2012,

Governor Christine Gregoire signed SHB 2299 creating the 4-H Special Design License Plate.

Sales began on January 2, 2013.

$28 of each license plate purchase or renewal goes to Washington State 4-H, and is tax-deductible!

4-H Special License Plate costs are as follows:

New Plate

$40 plus standard licensing fees.

Plate Renewal

$30 plus standard licensing fees.

Personalized license plates are now permitted on most special plate designs.

Fees collected by sale of 4-H special plates will be directed to support 4-H programs throughout Washington State.

Initial costs are required to be paid in advance of license plate creation. The Washington State 4-H Foundation is supporting the cost of creating the 4-H Special License Plate.
