

Stream Location	Parking	Accessibility	Special Park Features	Special Events November 7, 11am-3pm	Organizations
Chico Estuary 4264 Kittyhawk Dr. Bremerton  0.5mi (11min) walk from – Kitsap Transit Line #212 Stop 446/522: Austin at Erlands Pt	Park at the end of Kittyhawk Dr. and along the street. Watch for pedestrians.	View the estuary from above or use a sloped, bark-chipped path to reach the water’s edge. Path is not ADA accessible.	No restroom This site is a great spot to view recent restoration efforts and components of healthy fish habitat.	Talk with salmon docents at the water’s edge. Salmon anatomy with a fish biologist. Learn about invasive crabs and how to identify them in our waters. Coloring station & Salmon Survival Game.	Great Peninsula Conservancy, Suquamish Tribe, WA Sea Grant Crab Team, MidSound Enhancement
Chico Salmon Viewing Park 3121 Chico Way, Bremerton  0.4mi (8min) walk from – Kitsap Transit Line #212 Stop 449/452: Chico Way at Erlands Pt	2 disabled permit parking spots south of main entry - 20 parking spots on site with 10 spaces across the street. Look for traffic managers in bright colored vests.	Mostly flat, wood-chip filled trail considered wheelchair-friendly, although an all-terrain wheelchair would be ideal	Porta potty on site Recently restored creek bed. Master botanist labeled plants for easy identification.	Beaver/salmon activity, Practice fish ID, Kitsap County Parks guessing game, local fishing education tools. Coloring station & Salmon Survival Game.	Chico Park Stewards, Kitsap County Parks, WA Dept. of Fish & Wildlife, Kitsap County Dept. of Community Development (WSPER - Shore Friendly & Noxious Weeds), WSU Extension Water Stewardship & Master Gardeners
Salmon Haven at Dickerson Creek Northlake Way NW & Taylor Road, Bremerton  0.9mi (25min) walk from – Kitsap Transit Line #212 Stop 449/452: Chico Way at Erlands Pt	Parking available inside the gate or on north side of the road after the picnic shelter.	Short loop trail that follows Chico Creek and returns to parking lot. Trail is steep in spots. Stay back from the edge.	Porta potty on site Covered picnic shelter Confluence of Chico and Dickerson Creeks.	Macroinvertebrate & Water Quality Exploration station, Salmon Hazards game with Salmon Center, Jokes & Riddles station, Citizen Science Observation Boxes. Coloring station. StoryWalk: “Run Salmon Run” will be available from dawn to dusk 10/20 - 11/15	Kitsap County, Hood Canal Salmon Enhancement Group, Kitsap Regional Library, Public Works-Stormwater Stream Restoration
Keta Legacy Rhododendron Preserve 2401 Seabeck Hwy, Bremerton  1.6mi (40min) walk from – Kitsap Transit Line #212 Stop 449/452: Chico Way at Erlands Pt	Drive to the end of road past some homes to a small parking lot. Visitors need to hike on uneven terrain to see the salmon.	Not ADA accessible. Salmon streams are accessed by a moderate hike with some steep trail areas.	Restroom by parking No restroom on trail Mature forest area, including the largest publicly accessible Douglas Fir tree in Kitsap county. Wildcat Creek, Lost Creek and Chico Creek	Confluence of Wildcat Creek and Lost Creek, where they become Chico Creek- watch salmon choose which creek is home. Coloring station. StoryWalk: “An Incredible Journey” will be available from dawn to dusk 11/01 to 11/30	Keta Legacy Foundation, Kitsap Regional Library

Stream Location	Parking	Accessibility	Special Park Features	Special Events November 7, 11am-3pm	Organizations
Merle Hayes Salmon Enrichment Center 23175 Indianola Rd. NE Poulsbo  Kitsap Transit Line #302/391 weekdays only	One parking lot with about 10 parking spaces close to salmon viewing area.	Fairly flat terrain and ADA accessible to main area. There will be directional signage.	Porta Potty on site View outdoor working salmon enrichment operations vs. natural stream. This center works to build stocks while wild populations recover.	View native salmon and see two salmon dissections occurring during the day. Learning activities with KRL librarians. Create a salmon journal and more. Microscopes and guidebooks available for use. Coloring station & Salmon Survival Game.	Suquamish Tribe, Kitsap Regional Library
Poulsbo’s Fish Park 288 NW Lindvig Way, Poulsbo  0.2mi (4min) walk from – Kitsap Transit Line #332/ 331 Stop 1463/1464: Viking at Finn Hill Or 0.8mi (17min) walk from North Viking Transit Center	Two parking lots at Lindvig Way and Bond Rd., as well as Nelson Park with access to Fish Park via a trail under the Lindvig Way Bridge. Enjoy the colorful murals.	The path to most of the viewing areas is ADA accessible with a combination of boardwalk and packed gravel trail. There will be directional signage.	Porta Pottis in both parking lots (Bond & Lindvig) Plummed Restroom at Nelson Park A platform offers a new salmon viewing site. Enjoy a natural surface climbing structure, boardwalk trails and interpretive signage.	So much to do! Learning activities with KRL librarians. Scavenger hunt. Interactive Salmon Survival Game Presented by Poulsbo’s Fish Park Steering Committee. Coloring Station Salmon Arts & Crafts and Hot Cocoa & Cider at nearby Martinson Cabin from 12pm -3pm.	City of Poulsbo National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System, Kitsap Audubon Society, Kitsap County Native Plants, Kitsap Environmental Coalition, Kitsap Public Utilities District (KPUD), Kitsap Regional Library, Lion's Club, Poulsbo Tree Board, Rotary Club, WSU Master Gardeners, Poulsbo Historical Society, WWU on the Peninsulas
Clear Creek Ridgetop Pavilion Near 9228 Ridgetop Blvd., Silverdale  0.1mi (3min) walk from – Kitsap Transit Line #212/266 Stop: Ridgetop at Levin (623/625)	There is plenty of parking available near a wheelchair accessible observation deck.	The observation deck and gravel trail are ADA accessible. There is a mild slope down to a fairly flat site. Directional signs will be at the street and trailhead.	No restroom Mature Douglas-fir, western red-cedar and Sitka spruce shade the creek. Informational signs: salmon life cycle, birds/bugs of Clear Creek.	Talk with salmon docents on a small viewing platform. Learning activities with KRL librarians. Salmon anatomy & Stream bugs. Coloring station & Salmon Survival Game.	Great Peninsula Conservancy, Kitsap Regional Library
Otto Jarstad Park 4230 W. Belfair Valley Rd., Bremerton  No nearby Transit Line	There is plenty of parking inside the park.	ADA accessible. Flat terrain, no stairs from parking area to viewing sites. Caution: viewing platforms can be slippery.	Restroom The park has a gravel walking trail around the perimeter of the park with informational signs.	Salmon Life Cycle Presentation. Salmon Dissections. Stormwater pollution prevention & water conservation awareness info/giveaways, natural yard care guidebook. Learning activities with KRL librarians. Coloring station & Salmon Survival Game.	City of Bremerton, Kitsap Poggie Club, Kitsap Regional Library, Kitsap Conservation District