Question of the Week!

If I am entering my volunteer hours into the database, that must mean I'm enrolled, right? Err...no. Sorry. While your diligence in entering your volunteer hours is GREATLY appreciated, it is a completely separate database from the 4HOnline enrollment system. Now that a new 4-H year is beginning, be sure to RE-enroll in 4HOnline, even if you were enrolled in the 2015-16 4-H year. The new year starts October 1st!

Annual Updates This Fall: Updates to the Dates!

As usual (but unlike last year), there is an annual update this fall that must be attended by at least one enrolled volunteer from each club, as well as program leaders. That individual is responsible for sharing the information with the other enrolled volunteers in their club. Find out about policy changes and new research in youth development! Dates are as follows:

Sept. 26th, Monday evening, 7-9 p.m. at WSU Extension

October 17th, Monday evening, 7-9 p.m. at WSU Extension

October 26th, Wednesday evening, 7-9 p.m. at Cedarhome Baptist Church in Stanwood

October 29th, Saturday morning, 10 a.m. to Noon at the Marysville Public Library --NEW on schedule!

November 19th, Saturday afternoon, 12:45 – 2:45 at WSU Extension

November 29th, Tuesday evening, 7-9:00 p.m. at the Bothell Police Department --NEW

December 1st, Thursday evening, 7-9:00 p.m. at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds Longhouse --NEW

Explore 4-H Open House, Tuesday, September 27th

Our annual 4-H open house is now called Explore 4-H! It's next Tuesday at the Fairgrounds, in the 4-H Building (location change—hot off the press!). Tell all your friends who are interested in joining 4-H that this is a great opportunity to learn about 4-H, meet folks from various clubs and programs, and make connections.

Tuesday, September 27th, 7:00 p.m., in the 4-H Building at Evergreen State Fairgrounds. Follow the signs!
