New Stuff:

Teen Survey

Be a part of the 2017 WA State 4-H Teen Program Survey and use your voice to shape the future of 4-H Teen Programs! Share your experiences in 4-H as a teen and give us feedback to help plan future programs. When you complete the survey, you can enter to win one of four $25 Amazon gift cards through a random drawing. Drawings occur monthly October 2017 - January 2018. Quality Assurance

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose."
--Dr. Seuss We will be exploring what this quote means to us and our animals at our next Quality Assurance meeting on December 28th at 7 p.m. at the Extension Office. Come for a night of learning about animal handling, the animal vs human brain and how the animals see the world. Bring your calendars - meetings for the year will be planned out. Please RSVP to beth.morrison@wsu.edu if you are planning on attending.

On Thursday, December 21st, at 5:30 PM we will meet at Molbak's in Woodinville to shoot Christmas scenes and holiday lights. Bring a wide angle lens if you have one, and meet inside Molbak's, beyond the café at the tower of red poinsettias and wooden benches.

On Sunday, January 14th, from 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM we will hold a workshop in the Cougar Auditorium at the WSU Extension Office in McCollum Park in South Everett. Our topic is Abstract Photography.

Both events are program qualifiers for exhibiting at Evergreen State Fair and both are also qualifiers for STEM credit as well.

Small Animal Shows

Attention 4-Hers in Rabbit, Cavy, and Cat projects! The winter shows will be January 6th. All registration forms can be found on our Animal Sciences page: <http://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4h/programs/animal-science/>

Volunteer Update Reminder!

All certified/enrolled 4-H volunteers must watch the recorded Update this year, to remain in good standing. It takes one hour, plus a short survey to let us know you've watched it. Deadline is December 28th.
