

Snohomish County

4-H

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION

Snohomish County

CloverGram

January 5, 2018

Woohoo!

57 of our dear 4-H volunteers were eligible for the annual prize drawing, because they reported volunteer hours in each quarter of 2017. ...And the winner IS...Hilary Mayhan! Congratulations, Hilary, and thanks for reporting your hours!

Report hours here:

<http://ext.wsu.edu/Volunteers/logon.aspx>

New Stuff:

Public Presentations Class

This class, for youth and adults, will help you understand the variety of public presentations and how they are scored by the judges. Sunday, January 7th, 1-3:00 p.m. at Extension. Sign up here:

<http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0d4caca62fa3f85-4hpublic>

Adults who are enrolled 4-H volunteers will receive volunteer credit for this class, which counts toward the Group Facilitation pin and is required for club leaders within two years.

Which 4-H skill do graduates report benefits them most later in life? You guessed it—public speaking! Prepare for success by attending class this Sunday at Extension.

StopBullying.gov

When is it bullying, and what can you do about it? This resource from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has some good tips, including information on cyberbullying. www.StopBullying.gov

Photography Workshop

On Sunday, January 14th, from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m. the photography program will hold a workshop in the Cougar Auditorium at the WSU Extension Office in McCollum Park in South Everett. Our topic is Abstract Photography. Abstract Photography extends the artistic nature of photography by removing the context surrounding your subject. You can expand on creative aspects of what you are shooting and see the world in a whole new way – all through your pictures!

Reminders:

CLUB LEADERS, Have you

- Submitted your financial paperwork for the 2017 4-H year?
- Re-enrolled yourself in 4HOnline, and made sure your club members and volunteers are enrolled?
- Watched the annual Volunteer Update and made sure your club's volunteers have, as well?

If YES to all of the above, you get a

Woohoo!!!