Sad News

With deep sadness we report the unexpected passing of our dear llama/alpaca program leader, Don Stanwyck. Don's plane crashed near Bellingham on Monday. He will be sincerely missed by the many people whose lives he touched. A memorial service will be held in Duvall on Monday the 19th at 1:30, at the Riverview District office auditorium.

New Stuff:

Cloverleaf

Have you seen the February Cloverleaf yet? It can be found here: <http://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/wp-content/uploads/sites/7/2018/01/Cloverleaf.Feb2018.pdf?x97325> Don't miss the Alumni Spotlight, the report from Bark N Time 4-H Club, and the program notices of exciting activities happening this month!

STEM Opportunity for Youth!

We have been invited to participate in an outreach/demonstration activity with Lockheed Martin on Feb. 20th, 9 a.m. – 11 a.m. Youth will interact with employees through hands-on activities and demonstrations. Contact the King Co. 4-H Office at wrightkc@wsu.edu or 206-263-1917 by noon on Monday if you are interested. Limited space is available and there is a bit of paperwork to be completed prior to participation.

Quality Assurance

This month we will have a guest veterinarian coming to discuss good Vet-Client/Patient Relationships, antibiotics, and the most extreme cases she has seen in her time practicing veterinary medicine. Meeting is February 22 at 7 p.m. at the Extension Office. R.S.V.P. to Beth at Beth.morrison@wsu.edu

Club and Program Grants

It's not too early to start thinking about grant applications to help your club or program achieve its goals! These applications are due April 30th and can be found here: <http://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4h/resources/apply-for-a-grant-from-snohomish-county-4-h-council/>

Train to be a Portable Challenge Facilitator

Visit Camp Long's 4-H Challenge Course and learn how to guide groups through exercises in team-building, leadership, and numerous other facets of group dynamics. Take the Low Challenge training, and you'll be able to check out equipment from the Extension office to lead group activities.

View the flyer at: <http://parkways.seattle.gov/2018/01/10/recruiting-challenge-course-facilitators/>

Volunteers who wish to attend this training are encouraged to apply for a Council grant to defray costs.

Photography Program Workshop this Weekend

Photo shoot Saturday, Feb 17th, at the Downtown Seattle Library at 1000 4th Avenue. We'll meet at the main entrance at 3:00 PM. Approx. 4:30 to 5:00 PM, those who wish can walk down to Waterfront Park, which is at about Pier 58 Where Union Street meets Elliot Bay and just north of the Great Wheel. There we can take pictures of the Seattle Skyline as darkness starts to fall on the city. We'll probably wrap up around 6:00 p.m.
