New Stuff:

Rabbit Workshop

Wednesday, April 25th, 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. at WSU Extension, all rabbit project members are invited to a qualifying educational activity. Get pro tips on expectations for showmanship, learn about rabbit health, and share in a dessert potluck! No rabbits at this event, please, due to recent health concerns.

Volunteer Classes

Sunday, May 6th, at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds in Monroe, we are offering two volunteer classes:

- Project Leadership, 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. All project leaders need this prerequisite class. Program leaders need it, too. Thinking about becoming a project leader? Take the class!
- Working with Youth, 1:15 to 3:15 p.m. This class is required within two years of becoming a project leader, club leader, or program leader.

Please use this sign-up: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0d4caca62fa3f85-4hvolunteer9> At least 10 participants are needed by April 22nd, in order for the classes to be held.

Council Grant Application Deadline

Does your club or program need money? Application deadline for 4-H Council grants for clubs and programs is April 30th. <http://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4h/resources/apply-for-a-grant-from-snohomish-county-4-h-council/>

Suicide Prevention Training

Monday, April 23, 5:30 – 8:15 p.m. at the Snohomish County Administration building, 3000 Rockefeller Ave.

Community Service Opportunity

On May 5 at the Camano Center, Village Community Services is looking for volunteers to help with their annual fundraising event, Everything's Coming Up Roses. Lunch and dinner are provided for volunteers.

- Set up - 4 volunteers: 10:00 am to 2 pm.
- Servers - 12 to 14 volunteers: work with catering staff to serve dinner, clear tables, etc.. 4:30 pm to 9:30 pm.
- Runners - 5 to 8 volunteers: 4:30 to 8:45 pm. Assist in the "dessert dash" and also assist in carrying auction items.
- Clean up - all volunteers that are willing to stay and help in the cleanup.
