Ashley Hall!

Woohoo!

Thanks to the 13 volunteers who spent three whole days in facilitator training the weekend after fair! You are all superstars!

New Stuff:

Teen Rally Oct. 25-27!

We've been invited to participate in the Teen Rally that Pierce County is hosting! 4-H Youth in grades 7-12 are invited to a fun weekend of camp activities and leadership development. Enrollment is through 4HOnline, and more information can be found here: <https://extension.wsu.edu/pierce/south-sound-teen-rally/>

Snohomish County teens will be subsidized by county funds at $20, bringing the total registration fee to $115. Additionally, 4-H Council grant applications may be submitted by September 25th to snoco.4h@wsu.edu. Further financial needs may be directed to the 4-H office.

"Meet-and-Greet Ashley" Added to Volunteer Education Day

Gear Drive!

Glacier Peak Institute in Darrington, a 4-H affiliated program, is seeking outdoor gear. Maybe you have some used items collecting dust in your garage that you'd just as soon give to some youth!

See what they need and where you can drop it off here: <http://www.glacierpeakinstitute.org/gear-drive>

Unique Service Project Opportunity

WSU Extension has a rain garden program! Join the rain garden planting party in Lynnwood on Thursday, Sept. 26, 5-7:00 p.m. to help plant a rain garden! <https://snocd.org/2019LynnwoodRG>

Please Report Your Volunteer Time!

You put in a lot of time at fair! Take credit for it, and help us stay in compliance! Please log your hours at <https://volunteers.cahnrs.wsu.edu/>, and be entered into the quarterly drawing for a cool prize!
