Woohoo!

Three of our county's livestock judging team members qualified for the national contest! Congratulations to Chloe Burns, Kayla Boyd, and Rylee Strovas!

New Stuff:

Grants for Clubs and Programs! Sept. 30th Deadline!

Need some money for your club or program? The grant committee considers applications twice a year for such grants, and Sept. 30th is the deadline for the next round of applications. Find the forms and FAQs here: <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4h/resources/apply-for-a-grant-from-snohomish-county-4-h-council/>

Applications should be submitted to the Snohomish County 4-H office at snoco.4h@wsu.edu or in the security mailbox on the east side of the office building at 600 128th St. SE, Everett.

WA State 4-H Forum

This 4-H learning and networking opportunity for teens and adults is happening in SeaTac this year! October 11-13. Check out the details here: <https://extension.wsu.edu/4h/for-volunteers/washington-state-4-h-forum/> Some of the classes offered will qualify for credit in Snohomish County's E.V.O.L.V.E. system of education for 4-H volunteers. See the class list and recording sheet to submit for credit here: <https://s3.wp.wsu.edu/uploads/sites/2053/2019/09/EVOLVE-credits-for-2019-Forum.pdf>

Unique Service Project Opportunity

Join our fiber folks to help out at Fiber Fusion Oct. 18, 19, and/or 20, at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds in Monroe. 4-H volunteer Heidi Lucey is the contact person.

Fiber Fusion Northwest is 2 days of fiber, education and fun! The event is presented by the North Sound Alpaca Association, an agricultural education non-profit 501c(5) organization dedicated to community outreach on fiber animals, natural fibers, and their many creative uses.

Meet fiber artists who love to spin, knit, weave, crochet, and felt, as you help with set-up, tear-down, or various roles during the event.

Suicide Prevention Class

Wendy will be back to teach this well-grounded class on October 10th, at 6:30 at Extension (600 128th St. SE, Everett). She will debunk any misconceptions you might have about suicide, and prepare you with specific actions to take when you are concerned about another person's well-being. Everyone age 15 and up is welcome; no need to be in 4-H. Please let us know you'll attend on this confidential sign-up:
