

Snohomish County

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION

Snohomish County

CloverGram

January 17, 2020

Woohoo!

Many thanks to Dena Edgecombe for teaching the workshop on Public Presentations last weekend!

New Stuff:

MLK Message from WSU President Schultz

“Is your heart right? If your heart isn’t right, fix it up today.” Read the full message here: <https://from.wsu.edu/president/2020/mlk-message/email.html>

Quality Assurance Events

Tuesday, January 28, 6:30 p.m. at WSU Extension

Bio-security talk hosted by the Rabbit program. Meeting at 6:30 p.m. Bio-security talk following meeting. RSVP beth.morrison@wsu.edu

Thursday, February 13, 6:30 p.m. at WSU Extension

Love is in the air! Learn about animal hearts, the anatomy of a heart, and get hands-on with specimens. RSVP beth.morrison@wsu.edu

Saturday, February 29, 10 a.m., in Snohomish

Youth for the Quality Care of Animals (YQCA) in-person training and certification. Beth Morrison will be offering this class multiple times, and this will be the first. Save the date! Information on registration is coming soon!

Continuing Education Opportunities for 4-H Volunteers

A new page on our website hosts educational options, some with CE credits available.

<https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4h/volunteers/continuing-education-for-4-h-volunteers/>

News from the State 4-H Office

<https://extension.wsu.edu/4h/news/>

Topics:

- Washington State 4-H Scholarships for the college-bound
- Equity Institute: Applications being accepted now
- Spring Youth Calf Sale
- Sewing & Stitchery Expo
- State Swine Information Day
- Musical Theater Songwriting Challenge
- Women in Agriculture Conference
- State 4-H Advisory Board Minutes

Find earlier CloverGrams on our Resources page: <http://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4h/resources/>