Woohoo!

Hooray for creativity! Many thanks to all of you who are finding new ways to connect, learn, and educate, from a distance!

New Stuff:

COVID-19 Update from Snohomish County 4-H

The latest 4-H position related to COVID-19 was issued on Friday, March 13th. If you missed it, you can find it here: <https://s3.wp.wsu.edu/uploads/sites/2053/2020/03/March-13-Statement.pdf> WSU Extension has also now declared that all 4-H programming statewide will be conducted virtually, postponed or cancelled, effective immediately.

County-Level Educational Activity Requirement Waived for 2020

Encouraging statement from Kim Baker, 4-H Program Coordinator, sent to all club and program leaders on Friday, March 13th: <http://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/educational-activity-requirement-update/>

What To Do with the Kids, When They're Stuck at Home?

Many thanks to King County 4-H for compiling this dynamic web page of activities and links. It will continue to expand as more resources are added. All are research-based and from trusted sources.

Reminders

Volunteer Update!

Yes, it's available! Only an hour! All volunteers who did not attend an in-person session are asked to watch the recording at <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/2020-annual-volunteer-update/> by May 1, 2020.

Thank you! Be sure to fill out the micro-survey at the end, so we'll know you viewed the training.

Enrollment Deadline March 31st!

In order to be eligible to exhibit in 4-H departments at Evergreen State Fair, youth must be enrolled (with appropriate projects indicated) in 4HOnline by March 31st. Adult volunteers must also be certified and enrolled by March 31st to be eligible for discounted fair passes. <https://wa.4honline.com>

If you have any problems enrolling, please contact Kristi at 425-357-6044 or snoco.4h@wsu.edu.
