New Stuff:

County-Level Record Book Judging: Drop-Off Sign-Up

Update! This year, there will be an exception to the requirement that record books be evaluated at the club level before submitting them. If club leaders have scored record books, that is appreciated. If not, and if a member believes their record book would score at least 80, the record book may be submitted for an initial round of evaluation by other volunteers and/or staff.

Deadline: October 15th, 2020, for ALL record books, including horse program

Record books may be brought or sent to the county Extension office at 600 128th St. SE, Everett, WA 98208. The office is closed to the public, except by appointment. Sign up for a drop-off here:

Because scoresheet revisions are not yet complete, each entrant may choose which scoresheet they wish to be used, if they have a preference. Simply include the preferred scoresheet in the front of the record book. Otherwise, the judges will choose. <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4h/resources/record-book-resources/>
