New Stuff:

MARS Base Camp!

Reserve your home kit for the MARS Base Camp kit, for this year's STEM Challenge (formerly National Youth Science Day). A limited number of kits have been purchased by the county office. There is no charge to you! Choose a day to visit Mars with Kenny, our Technology Program Leader, or go at your own pace with video or printed instructions. <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4-h-action-week/>

Volunteer Recognition Event Postponed

Originally scheduled for 10/10 at 6 p.m. this statewide event has been postponed to November 7th! Please save the date to recognize our phenomenal volunteers!

Reminders:

Updated Enrollment Website

October marks the beginning of the 4-H year, and with it the time for both youth and adult volunteers to re-enroll for the year. 4HOnline has been updated to be more user friendly, so expect a new look. The new enrollment link is <https://v2.4honline.com/#/user/sign-in> Your previous login and password are still valid.

County-Level Record Book Judging: Drop-Off Sign-Up

If a member believes their record book would score at least 80, the record book may be submitted for an initial round of evaluation by other volunteers and/or staff before county-level judging of the record book.

Deadline to submit: October 15th, 2020, for ALL record books, including horse program
Record books may be brought or sent to the county Extension office at 600 128th St. SE, Everett, WA 98208. The office is closed to the public, except by appointment. Sign up for a drop-off here:
