New Stuff:

Animal Science Podcast

The Cougs Talk Stock Podcast Team is excited to announce that our first four episodes have been released! Our WSU Extension podcast focuses on science-based, relevant animal science topics for those interested in livestock production, those that raise livestock, and those that want to learn more about animal science

Episode #1: Animals Support Mental Health of Youth During Pandemic

Episode # 2: Locally Raised Beef- Marketing, Selling, and Buying

Episode # 3: What Should I Feed My Pets? Tips From an Animal Nutritionist

Episode #4: Pasture Management and Grazing in the PNW

Our podcast website can be found at: <https://soundcloud.com/cougstalkstock> or on Apple Podcasts.

Global Exploration Series

Cultural exchange opportunities are still available this summer! Six different countries will be highlighted. Learn about Taiwan and Japan in June! Virtual events will include trivia, language intros, and hands-on craft and cooking activities. Designed for youth ages 9-18, but other family members are also welcome.

Learn, Grow, Eat, & Go!

Virtual gardening series with Junior Master Gardener team! Geared toward grades 3-5, this series features fresh vegetable tastings/evaluations, simple recipe demos, and physical activities. Learn more at <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/junior-master-gardeners/>

Reminders:

4-H Enrollment Deadline Extended

With Fair now a GO, we want to help facilitate the participation of any youth who would like to participate, SO...for this year only:

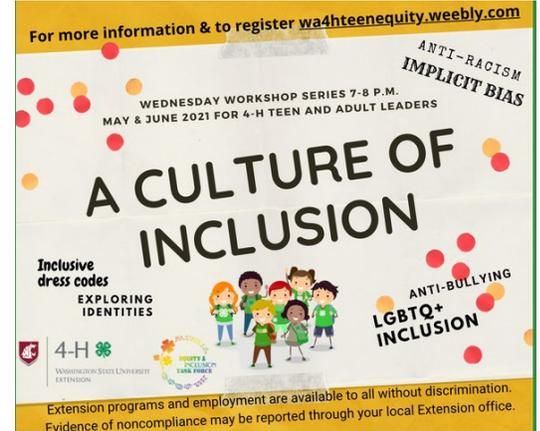

4-H Enrollment Deadline is Extended to June 1st for Fair Eligibility! <https://v2.4honline.com>

Last week's Community Statement also highlights this change.

A Culture of Inclusion

The 4-H Teen Equity & Inclusion Task Force is hosting a series of online workshops through June 23rd. Adults and youth are encouraged to participate. Come see what it's all about! Wednesdays, 7-8:00 p.m.
