Woohoo!

Congratulations to Emma Fontenot, whose 4-H Teen Equity and Inclusion team has been selected to present their workshop, “Words Matter – Practicing Inclusive Language,” at the National Healthy Living Summit! Way to go!

New Stuff:

Free Gift Bags from Strengthening Families Program!

WSU Extension SFP has some extra giveaways! These bags contain three activities that are designed to help strengthen families (Goals and Dreams Map, Family Tree, and Family Shield). Each bag contains simple instructions for the three activities, all the supplies needed to complete the activities, and a board or card game for your families to enjoy. To be eligible for these gift bags families must have at least one 10-14 year old in the home. Sign up for a gift bag here: https://wsu.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_4ZVV995nTZaCVh4

4-H Office Closure

4-H staff/offices will be closed to new business the week between Christmas and New Year’s. In case of emergency during that week, text or call Ashley’s cell phone at (425) 521-0357.

Addressing the Dress Code

Youth ages 12-19 are invited to attend a virtual symposium to explore how cultural awareness, body positivity, economic disparity, and gender equality relate to dress codes. This nationwide event is hosted by the WA State Teen Equity and Inclusion Task Force on Sunday, January 9th, 1-5 p.m. PST. Participants will receive an activity kit, and space is limited, so sign up soon! <https://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/5322231> or <https://wa4hteenequity.weebly.com/>

Reminders:

Know Your Government

KYG is open to everyone 13 years old and older this year! Even those not enrolled in 4-H! Learn how laws are created as we explore the legislative process. Interactive sessions in Zoom rooms will lead up to an in-person event in March. 4-H swag is awarded for participation in more events and activities. Check it out at <https://sites.google.com/view/kyg-2022>

Continuing Education for Volunteers!

From Project Leadership to Conflict Management, and even Zoom for Late Bloomers, get the workshops you need for your 4-H volunteer role! Final workshops are this Saturday, 12/11. See what’s on the menu and requirements for your position at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/70a0a4aa9a82ba0ff2-fall1>
