Woohoo!

Kudos to the Minecraft group in our Technology Program! In case you missed the holiday cheer they provided for our website, you can still check it out!

New Stuff

Volunteer Prize Drawing Imminent!

To be eligible for the next prize drawing, be sure to report your 4-H volunteer time by e-mailing monthly totals to beth.wangen@wsu.edu or enter your hours at <https://volunteers.cahrs.wsu.edu/> Don't know how many hours you've given? Just give us your best guess.

Animal Talk Tuesdays

The next quarterly session is January 25th, 6-7 p.m. with Michael Phelps, WSU Associate Professor, who will share what it's like to be an animal scientist! His specialty is aquaculture: the breeding, rearing, and harvesting of fish. Registration link: <https://tinyurl.com/AnimalTalkTuesday2>

So, You Want to Be a Farmer

WSU Extension offers a 12-week course called "Cultivating Success: Agricultural Entrepreneurship" to help new and current farmers gain skills in business planning, risk management, and direct marketing. All online this time! More info at Snohomish.WSU.edu/AgEnt.

Strengthening Families Program

The next series of this research-based Extension program for parents and their children aged 10-14 will be Jan. 24 to March 15. Held virtually in the evenings, Mondays (parents) and Tuesdays (youth/family). Explore your family's goals, values, and communication. Kids learn how to deal with peer pressure, and adults learn how to encourage behaviors and protect kids from substance abuse. Info/registration: carol.fowler@wsu.edu or 425-208-6640

Country Living Expo

It's happening! All virtual again, and over three days, Jan. 28-30. Only $10 for students. Everything from Asian giant hornets to water rights! See what's offered here: <https://extension.wsu.edu/skagit/countrylivingexpo/>

Reminders:

Annual Survey

The annual anonymous survey of adults is open! Let us know how you think 4-H is doing, and get a chance to win $100 in 4-H swag and supplies for your club from the 4-H store!
