Woohoo!

Volunteers win prizes! For reporting their volunteer hours, Katie Jean Britten and Jackie Grove have won prizes! Many thanks to both of these amazing volunteers!

Please track your hours. A new reporting platform is coming this summer! In the meantime, please send them to beth.wangen@wsu.edu. Thanks so much!

Fundraising Opportunity

The Horse Program is looking for a Club or Program interested in a fundraising opportunity on June 17-19 at the fairgrounds. Responsibilities would be parking supervision on Friday and Saturday evenings, RV fee collection, periodic grounds clean up, and then checking that stalls were cleaned, swept, and aisles swept, along with final parking lot clean up on Sunday afternoon/evening. Job could be shared by multiple clubs or programs, 5-10 people adequate. A total of $1,000 is available for whole event. Contact Devon Berg 425-345-4011 devpaints@msn.com or Pat Pehling 425-327-6778 pehing@frontier.com

Livestock Judging Practice

Youth who want to practice judging Angus heifers are invited to the Newhouse Farm on May 25th at 6 p.m. Check your e-mail for details, and please RSVP to Jodi Stebbins at teamlivestock@yahoo.com.

More Free COVID Home Tests

Both WA State and the federal government are making more rapid home tests available! How to get yours:

Awards Time!

Nominate a volunteer for an award! Encourage a youth member to apply for an award! Each year there are some awards that go unclaimed. Let's recognize our outstanding youth and dedicated volunteers! The deadline for most award applications and nominations is July 1st, but allow some prep time. See what awards are available here: <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/awards/>

Explore 4-H Open House 10/1/22

To kick off the next 4-H year, we will hold our annual OPEN HOUSE event, Explore 4-H, at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds on Saturday, October 1st! Please mark your calendars, as we will need a representative from each program at this event to talk to new families. Clubs that would like to recruit new members are also welcome!
