Woohoo!

Kudos to our Minecraft group in the 4-H Technology program for the great recreations of the U.S. Capitol, just in time for a national holiday weekend!

New Stuff:

Accountability with Grace

This free webinar, the last in the series on Trauma-Informed Practices for 4-H Volunteers, was postponed to June 28th at noon. If you wanted to catch this one but haven't registered for the series, please contact Cassandra Kelly at cassandra.kelly@wsu.edu

Trauma-Informed Practices

Free lessons on demand! Improve your skills at keeping youth engaged and learning with this fabulous series of webinars! Each one is about 45 minutes. We never know who among our groups would benefit from these methods, so I invite you to expand your volunteer toolkit with this knowledge! All of the lessons can be found at <https://www.croptr.org/trauma-informed-training>.

Reminders:

Community Statement about COVID-19

Find the latest news, tools, and practices in 4-H to deal with the pandemic here:

Awards Time!

Nominate a volunteer for an award! Encourage a youth member to apply for an award! Each year there are some awards that go unclaimed. Let's recognize our outstanding youth and dedicated volunteers! The deadline for most award applications and nominations is July 1st, but allow some prep time. See what awards are available here: <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/awards/>

Explore 4-H Open House 10/1/22

To kick off the next 4-H year, we will hold our annual OPEN HOUSE event, Explore 4-H, at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds on Saturday, October 1st! Please mark your calendars, as we will need a representative from each program at this event to talk to new families. Clubs that would like to recruit new members are also welcome!
