Woohoo!

Remember last year, when Stacy DeKoekkoek and Carlee Warner were selected as the 4-H Volunteers of the Year for our county? Which fantabulous volunteer would you like to nominate this year? It's time!

New Stuff:

Friends of 4-H Award

Is there a person (aside from 4-H volunteers), business, or organization that has supported your 4-H club or program in amazing ways? You can nominate them for a Friend of 4-H Award! Nominations will be considered at the next 4-H Council meeting on July 10th. Bring your nomination to the meeting or submit it in advance at snoco.4h@wsu.edu.

Snohomish County 4-H Volunteer of the Year

Each year the 4-H Council recognizes 1-2 individuals as 4-H Volunteers of the Year. If you are an enrolled volunteer and would like to nominate someone, please see the Volunteer of the Year criteria and instructions at <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/4h/resources/snohomish-county-4-h-volunteer-of-the-year/>. These nominations are due at the 4-H Council meeting on July 10th. Bring your nomination to the meeting or submit it in advance at snoco.4h@wsu.edu.

Reminders:

Awards! Time to Nominate and Apply!

Most of our county-level 4-H awards, both for youth members and for volunteers, have deadlines of July 1st. So this is the time to consider nominating a great volunteer, and to encourage youth to apply for awards! Jacket Awards, Achievement pins, and many more!

Find them all at <https://extension.wsu.edu/snohomish/awards/>. Submit by e-mail to snoco.4h@wsu.edu.

Military Teen Adventure Camps, year Four!

Nearly free camps for youth in military families, these camps are offered by Snohomish County 4-H and Glacier Peak Institute for a fourth year! Can you help for one day, or more? Sessions are July 18-21 and July 25-28. Contact Stormy Ingersoll for dates that need helpers! Stormy.ingersoll@wsu.edu or 509-800-7959. Thanks!
