

Woohoo!

Fair begins next week! Let us recall what we treasure about this experience: building friendships, expanding our comfort zones, learning new things, supporting one another, and sharing our hard work and what we've learned. Take a moment each day to re-focus on what's important.

Reminders:

Wanted: Youth Emcees for Awards Ceremony

Do you know a youth who would be great at emceeding the annual 4-H awards ceremony on the opening night of Fair? Last year a dozen youth took turns reading the scripted ceremony with their own flair and presenting awards to youth, volunteers, and our community supporters. Interested youth, please contact Kim Baker at kim.baker@wsu.edu or call/text 425-520-3908 and reserve time on the evening of Aug. 22nd!

Teen Leaders Can Facilitate KYG (Know Your Government)

Do you know a teen who would like to gain leadership experience helping to facilitate a statewide 4-H event? Previous participation at Know Your Government is not required. The next conference will be February 15-17, 2025, in Olympia, and the topic is "Pursue Justice: Be the Jury." Conference Facilitator \(CF\) applications are open until August 15th. Encourage the high-schoolers in your club to apply!

Explore Your Small Farm Dreams

WSU Extension offers a series of courses called Cultivating Success. The first workshop, Explore Your Farm Dreams, will be August 19th, 6-9:00 p.m. statewide, online, and with Spanish interpretation. Click the link for more information or to register, or contact Kate Smith (360) 395-2363, kate.smith@wsu.edu.
