Lot Definitions

Green Horse: a horse in the beginning of training, first year being shown under saddle in riding classes. Green horse may be ridden or in hand depending on the class it is entered.

Seasoned In-Hand Only: any equine over 38 inches, the accepted miniature horse size, that cannot be shown under saddle due to age, size, or health reasons.

Miniature Horse: an equine that is 38 inches or less at max height. Must be three years old or older to jump.

Novice: previously called maiden, must not have previously won a blue ribbon in the class in the past. If the class is judging the equine and not the rider the equine must not have previously won a blue ribbon under any rider in the past.

Walk/Trot (jog): this class is reserved for riders who have not shown in lope classes in their first or second year riding in this event.

Medals: must have won three blues, a champion or grand champion to be eligible for these classes. They are 4-H only classes.
