

Grays Harbor 4-H Council, in partnership with the Panhandle Lake Camp Board of Directors

Presents

Panhandle 4-H Camp Community Service Weekend

From 7pm on Friday, April 20th through Sunday afternoon, April 22nd

Activities will start at 7pm on Friday night and go through the afternoon on Sunday (whenever 4-H families want to depart, 5pm being the latest). Teams will be working on clearing the trails around the lake and any other projects that facility staff could have available.

RSVP and Reserve a bunk by Monday, April 9th

4-H members with adult supervision can RSVP with Rhonda to bunk in the dorm or the lodge. Items to bring: outdoor clothing, work gloves, boots, jackets, snacks, and toiletries and bedding for overnight. Tools like shovels, rakes, weed trimmers (run by older teens or adults) and clippers or wheelbarrows would be welcome. Panhandle Board Member, Linda H. will be cooking! This event will count as community service for those who need hours.

Summer camp counselors will be on hand to facilitate activities with the kids ... join your 4-H family, meet new people, and help Panhandle Camp be the best it can be!
