

When the honeymoon ends

The romance (and reality) of marriage equality litigation

Thursday, April 23 | 4 – 5pm
Foley Speaker's Room, Bryan 308

Alison Gash will discuss the marriage equality cases currently before the U.S. Supreme Court and the implications for gay and lesbian couples.

Alison Gash is assistant professor at University of Oregon, and author of 'Below the Radar: How Silence Can Save Civil Rights', Oxford University Press, 2015.