The politics of health care access in America

HOSPITAL
CLOSED

Wednesday, November 12 | 12pm

Foley Speaker's Room | 308 Bryan Hall

How has government policy shaped access to health care for low-income Americans, and why does where you live matter?

Emily Parker is assistant professor at the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers University.

This event is co-sponsored with the WSU Department of Sociology.
