BE A MUSIC MAJOR FOR A DAY!

November 9, 2026

The Washington State University School of Music would like to invite prospective students and their parents/guardians to its Fall 2026 Music Major For A Day open house. Enjoy a day in beautiful Pullman, WA and see what a typical schedule is like for a music major. Event is open to all students considering a degree in music education, music performance, general music, or a double major. Attendance is FREE of charge.

- See first hand how we provide students with a rich and diverse musical education
- Experience how we prepare students for successful careers in music
- Learn about degree programs, admission, scholarships, and financial aid
- Attend classes and participate in ensemble rehearsals
- Meet the School of Music faculty
- Enjoy a free private lesson with one of our faculty members
- Interact with current music students
- Take a walking tour of campus
- Experience campus dining

Registration closes November 2nd. Reserve your spot today!
