

TEEN FILM CAMP

CAMP DATES
JULY 15-19, 2025
Whidbey Island, WA

HANDS-ON INSTRUCTION

- Teens will work in small groups of 3-4 individuals to create short (1-3 min) films that touch on an aspect of mental health, suicide prevention, substance use prevention, or similar topic that is important to them.

CREATIVE FREEDOM

- We hope that our young future filmmakers will bring their own creativity and passion to the drawing board. Experts will be there to consult, but creative freedom will be respected wherever possible.

EXPERT GUIDANCE

- Each teen group will have access to a content-expert (mental health, suicide prevention, and substance use) to help guide them in ensuring accurate information is shared. In addition to content experts, guidelines will be provided to ensure the films are appropriate for young people to view.

TEEN RECOGNITION

- The films created will be shared far and wide, with credits to the teen filmmakers.
