

Scoop that Poop lyrics

Song lyrics by Steve Urbanc for WSU Beachwatchers. Copyright 2011.

When I walk my dog I always get a wag
But before I leave the house I need to grab a bag.
Cuz when my dog poops, even way back in the trees.
It can still hurt the water and the river and the seas.
But if I'm in a hurry, or maybe I forgot, is that a big deal? It's just one pet!
I think it doesn't matter cuz it's really just me,
But add one more and now me is just we.
Add another one and now we becomes three.
It keeps getting bigger as you can now see.
Keep adding one and you'll never be done.
And that's how a pound gets to be a ton.
Some may think that I am only one.
But he she you and me, we are everyone.
I'm just me, but a bunch of me's a group.
So do the right thing and scoop up that poop.
The moral of the story is easy to see.
Scoop that poop and save the sea.
Save the sea for you and me.
Save the sea for destiny.
Scoop up that poop, go down on your knees.
Scoop that poop and save the sea.
Tell your friends, keep 'em in the loop.
Save the sea. Do the right thing, scoop that poop.
