Exploring Commercial Craft Hard Cider & Perry Production: From orchard to glass

Join WSU and OSU Extension for an all-day, exploratory workshop for those interested in orchard-to-glass commercial craft cider and perry production in the Mid-Columbia Gorge region. The event will bring together speakers from OSU and WSU's cider teams, along with panels of tree fruit growers and cidermakers.

PROGRAM FEATURES:

- Fundamentals and considerations for commercial scale-
 - Cider apple and perry pear production
 - Fermentation for craft cider and perry production
- Considerations for developing and running a successful field-to-glass cider business
- Q & A with tree fruit grower and cidemaker panels
- Refreshments and snacks
- Catered lunch for full day attendees*
- Opportunity for networking
- Optional cider tasting afterward at Le Double Trouble Wine Co.
