

Recruitment is now open for 2025 Summer Workshop in Research Mentoring

FACILITATED BY: Matt Peck, asst professor & training grant coordinator

Questions: email matthew.peck@wsu.edu

WORKSHOP OBJECTIVE:

Develop your research mentorship practice with a supportive learning community

ELIGIBLE to PARTICIPATE:

WSU graduate students, postdocs, and staff who do or will mentor in STEM labs

Learning Objectives

Develop your identity as a researcher and mentor

Help trainees connect with research environments

Align expectations in "mentoring triads" with PIs

Align and communicate research project goals

Create a growth mindset in mentoring relationships

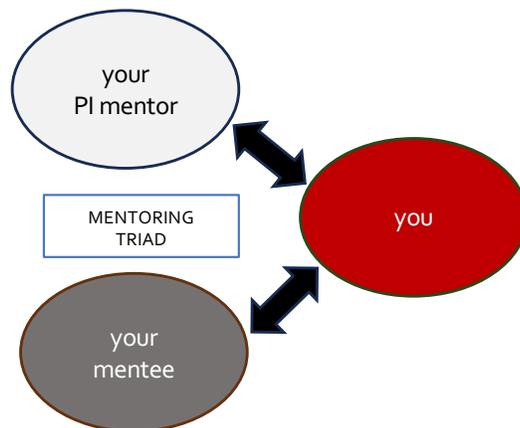

Maintain effective communication providing feedback

Cultivate responsible and ethical lab research practices

Foster independence and self-efficacy for trainees

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE and LOGISTICS:

- Four, 2-hour sessions
- Survey will help us identify four exact dates between May 19–June 27
 - Refreshments provided
- Certificate of Completion provided

LITERATURE-INFORMED

CIMER's "Entering Research" and "Entering Mentoring"

WSU's "Learn. Inspire. Foster. Transform."

PARTICIPANT-CENTERED

INTERESTED?

Submit survey by May 1:

<http://tinyurl.com/WSUMLC>

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
NIH Protein Biotechnology
Training Program

SUPPORT FROM:

Institute of Biological
Chemistry