

Black History Month? (Clean)

It's the last day of Black History Month & brothers don't care, they're just waiting on the first can't wait to check them E.B.T cards you can feel the thirst.
Y'all already forgot about Trayvon Martin that fast y'all already put Martin Luther King's dream in a bag.
Y'all already let the fact that over 8 black men died by the hands of a cop pass y'all let the whole parade go by because you were too busy staring at some ass watching some award show for the white folks
When all they did was use the song Glory to glorify some Selma black and white jokes.
But what do I know, I'm just one more black woman probably wearing a dashiki white man lying to you, they don't see a king in you, they see a bunch of Rafiki's monkeys a bunch of Nene's, que que's, meme's or what nots.
They never see Harriet Tubman's, Maya Angelou's, Cisley Tyson's or Coretta Scott's.
Just a bunch of liquor stores on every block just a bunch of brothers on Instagram bragging about stuff they ain't got.
Don't be bamboozled or hoodwinked, swindled not every dude wants a Kim, Kylie, or a Kendall shoot, I'm lying I'll take any one of them even Kris cause y'all don't care about nothing, not even this so even with the 28 days they give y'all that ain't nothing
You think not a day goes by that Steven Spielberg doesn't highlight the holocaust.
Black man was hanging like a shirt and shoes on a clothesline at the same time well, at least I was raised to throw up my fist instead of a gang sign.
I know I'm talking like I'm pro black
No, I'm just proud to be and Ima make sure my kids, kids, kids know that.
cause if we hopped in a time machine, you people would be scared to go back.
You brothers couldn't last a minute in a room full of white people playing Bobby Womack
I'm gonna mess around and grow my fro back and stand in the window with a gun like Malcolm X and wait on the nation to send me assassinate any fake nigga text,
So that means you could be next to get a hole in your chest for claiming to have more soul than James Brown in the flesh.
We know the problems, so be the answer, because the brothers back then could turn a great white shark into a black panther, yea, I'm proud to be black as the coffee at a coffee bean shop
I hope we could all go to sleep and wake up in the middle of Martin Luther King's dream.
Maybe then y'all would understand what life really means.
