Tip: Review passenger name details early and update any legal or spelling errors before departure to avoid travel disruptions.

What Is Delta Airlines Name Correction Policy?

The Delta Airlines Name Correction Policy allows passengers to correct inaccuracies in the passenger name on an existing reservation. These corrections are strictly limited to ensuring the ticket reflects the same traveler, not a different individual.

Important Notice: Delta Airlines tickets are non-transferable. A name correction does not allow changing the passenger to someone else.

Types of Name Corrections Allowed by Delta Airlines

Delta Airlines generally permits the following name corrections:

Minor Name Corrections

- Typographical errors (usually up to 1–3 characters)
- Missing or extra letters in first or last name
- Correcting reversed first and last names
- Adding or removing a middle name
- Aligning the ticket name with a passport or government ID

Legal Name Changes

- Last name change due to marriage
- Name change following divorce
- Court-ordered name changes
- Legal name updates reflected on official documents

These changes require valid documentation and verification.

Required Documents for Name Correction

Documentation requirements depend on the type of correction:

For Minor Corrections

- Booking confirmation or ticket number
- Valid government-issued ID (passport or driver's license)

For Legal Name Changes

- Marriage certificate
- Divorce decree
- Court order for name change
- Updated passport or official identification

All documents must clearly show the connection between the old and new name.
