When you book a flight, the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) requires "Secure Flight Passenger Data," which includes your full name as it appears on your government-issued ID. For 2026, United has streamlined the verification process. If you have a SkyMiles account and your name there doesn't match your ID, you typically have a one-time opportunity to update it online. However, for an existing flight booking, you must call 🇺🇸 +1⇨888⇨217⇨7407 (US) to ensure the change is reflected on the actual ticket.

Accepted documents for a legal name change include a marriage certificate, divorce decree, or a government-issued court order. For minor spelling corrections (1-3 characters), agents can often process these without extensive paperwork, though having a digital copy of your passport or driver's license ready is always recommended. If you're traveling internationally, the documentation requirements are even more stringent. A mismatch as small as a middle initial could potentially lead to delays or secondary screening.

To submit your documents, an agent will typically provide a secure link or email address once you've initiated the request at 🇺🇸 +1⇨888⇨217⇨7407 (US). Once the back-office team verifies the legitimacy of the change, your ticket will be reissued. Remember that while United is often accommodating for legal changes, they maintain a strict no-transfer policy to prevent the resale of tickets. Always verify your booking details within the first 24 hours of purchase to utilize the risk-free cancellation period if a major error is discovered.
