RE: Name Change of the Washington State University Materials Research Institute (WSU-MRI) to the Washington State University Institute of Materials Research (WSU-IMR)

On behalf of my Research and Arts Committee (RAC) co-chair, Dr. Lisa Day, and the rest of the RAC members, I am writing to inform you that the Research and Arts Committee voted at our last meeting of the past academic year (April 17, 2019) to approve the name change of the Washington State University Materials Research Institute (WSU-MRI) to the Washington State University Institute of Materials Research (WSU-IMR). Please add this item to the Faculty Senate Agenda as an information item for the September 19, 2019 meeting.

Note. A file with supporting documentation for this name change request is attached.
