

College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

Updates from WSU Health Sciences and the College of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences

Kay Meier, PhD

Associate Dean for Faculty & Student Development
College of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences

Synergy: CPPS and USTUR

- CPPS, part of WSU Health Sciences, provides an administrative “home” for USTUR within WSU
- CPPS provides staff and administrators with expertise in handling federal research grants involving human subjects
- CPPS provides collaborative opportunities (e.g., pharmacokinetics; cancer biology; genomics)
- CPPS provides a graduate student training program and career development resources
- USTUR provides invaluable scientific expertise, international reputation, training opportunities, and research relevant to human health

Research Administration in CPPS

- Linda Garrelts-Maclean, BPharm: Interim Dean
- Mark Leid, BPharm, PhD: Incoming Dean 7/1/20
- Kay Meier, PhD: Associate Dean for Faculty and Student Development
- Andrea Lazarus, PhD: Assistant Vice President for Research
- Phil Lazarus, PhD: Chair, Pharmaceutical Sciences
- John White, PhD: Chair, Pharmacotherapy
- Sarah Kohler: Director of Finance

News from WSU Health Sciences

- New administrative structure:
 - Deans in Spokane report to Daryll DeWald,
Chancellor of the Health Sciences campus
- Search is underway for new Provost
- Semester is ending successfully with all-online teaching
- In-person commencement was cancelled; some version of this event may be rescheduled later
- Research labs are currently closed, with some personnel maintaining animals etc.
- Limited essential personnel are on campus

News from CPPS

- Total enrollment of 628 PharmD students
- 543 in Spokane; 85 in Yakima
- Total enrollment of 35 PhD students
- CPPS research expenditures, 4/1/2019 – 3/31/2020:
 - ✓ Total: $9,943,491 ($8,353,395 last FY)
 - ✓ USTUR: $1,207,742 ($1,147,477 last FY);
12% from USTUR

Questions?

WASHINGTON STATE
UNIVERSITY
HEALTH SCIENCES

College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences
WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY