

Engaged! A Conversation on Enabling Community Engaged Research at WSU

REGISTER for this FREE summit at <https://forms.gle/m8BuohCsaJ75yXwq9>

Agenda At a Glance

Tuesday March 4, 2025

8:30 am to 4:30 pm

PACCAR Room 202, Pullman Campus

- 8:30 – 8:45 Welcome, Overview – CEREO Co-Directors
- 8:45 – 10:15 PANEL 1: Experiences doing community engaged research at WSU
Researchers, Extension professionals and graduate students will share their experiences and the impacts achieved and challenges faced in community engaged research
- 10:15 – 10:30 BREAK
- 10:30 – 12:00 PANEL 2: Fostering community engaged research at WSU
Office of Research, Center directors, and grassroots leaders in institutionalizing community engaged research will share programs, initiatives and efforts that currently exist at WSU
- 12:00 – 1:00 LUNCH
- 1:00 – 2:15 DISCUSSION SESSION: Recommendations for enabling community engaged research in the environmental fields at WSU
Participants will join breakout groups to reflect on how WSU programs and initiatives to support community engaged research fill the needs of those carrying out community engaged research, and provide recommendations of what the institution can do to fill remaining gaps
- 2:15 – 3:15 REPORT OUT: Recommendations for enabling community engaged research in the environmental fields at WSU
Everyone will come back together to hear breakout group moderators report out a summary of the recommendations that arose from their breakout group
- 3:15 – 3:30 BREAK
- 3:30 – 4:15 PANEL 3: Reflections on gaps, opportunities and potential for action
All panelists—those involved in community engaged research and those leading efforts to support community engaged research—will reflect on what they heard and the potential for future action at WSU
- 4:15 – 4:30 Concluding Remarks – CEREO Co-Directors